

How Do We Thaw the Freeze? It all begins with Plan Week.

Plan week:

- ❖ is the first step of the Navajo Thaw
- ❖ is 1.5 days of intense planning activity
 - 8:30 am – 4 pm and then 6 pm – 9 pm on the first day
 - 8:30 am – 12 noon on the second day
- ❖ helps every Chapter communicate their housing, infrastructure, economic development and public facilities priorities
- ❖ identifies Chapter priorities for inclusion in the Navajo Thaw Regional Plan
- ❖ identifies local projects for grant writing and implementation
- ❖ begins the process to make a big, positive difference over the next three years!

What Chapters need to do before Plan Week:

- ❖ pick two days for planning
- ❖ form a Steering Committee (information at www.NavajoThaw.com)
- ❖ coordinate meeting space
- ❖ organize the room (tables, chairs, power for audiovisual)
- ❖ consider providing food (especially for the evening session on Day One)
- ❖ collect and provide local materials to the Native Builders team
 - current CLUP
 - current CIP and CIP Resolution
 - updated list of Chapter Officials and CLUP Members
 - local Housing Assessment documentation (if available)
 - status of Housing Escrow Funds
 - supporting documentation on any priority project
 - anything else that is important to the Chapter
