2. Self-Introductions

Attendance at the meeting included Lula Neztosie, Chris McKibben, Donald Irby, Marshall Whitmire, Lionel Bigthumb, Chuck Howe, Alfreida Littleboy, AJ Taptto, Marilyn Reed, Bobby Robbins, Brian Cole, and Jamie Larson.

4. Administrative Details and Reports—Tolani Lake Enterprises/USDA Rural Development

Stephanie Hall will be out of office for this week and next. AJ Taptto plans to follow up with her on Monday. The need for agreements is becoming more pressing as we enter the 5th month of this project.

5. Project Activity/Programming

a. Swaback Partners

Agreements are most pressing issue currently. McKibben plans to follow up with Hall when she returns to the office.

b. Building Communities

The project presentation stills needs input from community members to pick out photos. Larson will set up a meeting with Franklin and Littleboy to review those photos.

c. Native Builders

Travis Tso is taking over for his late father Thomas Tso.

d. Cameron Chapter/CLUP

There is currently no CLUPC committee. CLUPC is in the middle of transition of members and it may take another month for the transition to finalize.

e. Placemaking Advisors

Chuck Howe mentioned his role in supporting the Black Streak holdings project and how it was a nice fit for the Envision Cameron project.

f. Blackstreak Holdings

Lionel Bigthumb attended the meeting representing Blackstreak Holdings. They have been pushing towards getting a business site lease to establish a place that provides lodging and tours in Navajo. They are currently waiting for site control in order to move forward with their project.

5. New Business

There was no new business brought up during the meeting.

6. Next Meeting

The next meeting will be March 18th at 1 PM MST.
