1. Call to Order—Jamie Larson

Attendance included Marshall Whitmire, Donald Irby, Chris McKibben, Chuck Howe, Eileen Tohonnie, Brian Cole, and Jamie Larson.

2. Administrative Details and Reports—Tolani Lake Enterprises/USDA Rural Development

Don Irby indicated there has been a lot of new interest with the Rural Business Development Grant which is due on March 31. Also, funding is coming in from the Disaster Recovery for Havasupai, Navajo, and Tohono O’odham. This funding must be placed by June. The grant needs a non-profit to submit on their behalf for non-certified Chapters.

3. Project Activity/Programming

a. Swaback Partners

Swaback is waiting on the contract to be finalized with Tolani Lake Enterprise.

b. Building Communities

Larson and Tohonnie discussed photos to be included on the project presentation last week. A list of new photos to collect was created and will be sent out to some community members to take those photos. In addition, there was an interest in taking aerial photos of Cameron to include. Cole reached out to Lionel Bigthumb regarding using his drone to take aerial photos.

c. Native Builders

Native Builders is in the process of re-establishing the company after the passing of Thomas Tso.

d. Cameron Chapter/CLUP

During the meeting, Brian Cole attempted to reach out to Cameron Chapter President Charlie Smith regarding the availability of USDA RD community facilities funding for a local project. Cole will continue to reach out. It was recommended to reach out to the new CLUPC members to invite them to Envision Cameron Meetings.

e. Placemaking Advisors

There was no new business to report.

4. New Business

There was no new business to discuss.

5. Next Meeting
