The meeting was called to order at 1:11 PM MST. Attendance included Don Irby, Stephanie Hall, Rhondha Harvey, Chris McKibben, Stan Robbins, Brian Cole, Jamie Larson.

4. Administrative Details and Reports—Tolani Lake Enterprises/USDA Rural Development

Stephanie Hall reports that the financial reports are almost done. In addition, the programmatic report is being completed by Brian Cole and is almost complete. Hall asked for Swaback assistance in developing programmatic reports. More personnel at TLE have been hired and are currently onboarding. Capacity building training is ongoing. TLE is hopeful to be more engaged in the future.

5. Project Activity/Programming

a. Swaback Partners

Swaback reports that they are making continual work towards exhibit for kick-off meeting on September 15th.

b. Building Communities

Brian Cole introduced Bailey Anderson who will be working on the invoicing side of things. The need for an updated directory was brought to light and Cole said he will get Anderson on the project. Cole pressed the importance that Stephanie is a crucial part of early dialogue with the CLUPC. It is important to acknowledge the sensitivities of the community. In addition, the Navajo thaw Staffing meeting is coming up soon.

c. Native Builders

No new business to report.

d. Cameron Chapter/CLUP

Stephanie Hall pressed the need for the project to better define the community's role and establish better relationships. Previous projects dealt with numerous conflicts of interests with money. Chris Mckibben replies that the grant for them, is an important project with great value and so it is crucial to ease the fears of the community and adjust as needed. It is important to identify gaps of understanding and bridge knowledge.

e. Placemaking Advisors

No new business to report.

5. New Business
